

Middle River Yacht Club

Invites you to attend

A Barn Dance Commodore's Ball

Honoring

Commodore Ted Wooden Jr, First Lady Laura and Princess Stephanie

Saturday, February 3, 2018

Stone Ridge Hollow

914 Walters Mill Road Forest Hill Md. 21050

4:00 pm Receiving Line

5:00 pm Introductions & Ceremony

6:00 pm Dinner featuring pit cooked meats, vegetables, Potatoes, and salad. Ice cream for desert

7:00pm - 10:00pm Music by What's Next voted Baltimore's best band for the past five years

Donation $85.00 per person and $45.00 per princess

Attire is Western Causal with open bar all night

Officers must wear uniforms for the ceremony but are encouraged to change once the ceremony is over.

All guests are encouraged to wear Western Causal apparel. Cow Boy Boots and Hats included.

We are reserving hotel rooms at Country Inn and Suites (410-297-9444) right off exit 80 on I95. The cost of the rooms range from $79.00-$89.00 a night and are reserved under Middle River Yacht Club. There will be a bus provided for transportation from the hotel to the barn and back again after the ball is over. Beer will be provided on the bus ride. Once the ball is over there will be a hospitality room opened up at the hotel for everyone to enjoy.

Any questions about the ball, transportation or hospitality room can be directed to

Commodore Ted Wooden 443-277-8005 or Ted@wilmotmodular.com

Rsvp. to Mary Philip 410-491-9054 or mphilip9@jhmi.edu by January 17th